All Reviews Submitted for Friday the 13th (1980)

Plot : 3

Your typical slasher plot. Group of young people go off in the woods and have sex and get murdered.

Antagonist/Threat: 6

I won't give anything away, but you don't get to see much of the killer in this movie. The latter half of the movie was fairly suspenseful.

Characters: 4

No one is very memorable or particularly likeable. The Old Man Harbinger was entertaining.

Aesthetic/Atmosphere: 8

One of the first horror movies set at a summer camp. Some great foreboding shots in this movie and an awesome thunderstorm.

Graphic Content: 5

Not as much gore as the later entries in the series. A small bit of nudity. One very memorable kill thanks to SFX master, Tom Savini.
